The meeting was called to order at the usual time, by the Vice-President, J. B. Atherton, and was opened with singing and prayer. Recording Secretary—Charles Baldwin.

Corresponding Secretary—Miss M. A. Chamberlain.

Home Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. M. Benfield.

Treasurer—W. W. Hall.

Elective Members of the Board—C. M. Cook and Miss Norton.

The Editors for the Maile for the coming four months are : William Kinney, F. J. Lowrey, Miss Carrie Gilman and Miss Maria Forbes.

The appropriations for the coming year were next considered, and the following were decided upon :

For contingencies.....	50

Total.....$2050

The above items were first passed singly and then as a whole.

A motion was made to change the time of serving of the Musical Committee, from three to four months, but it was found that such a change required a month's notice, whereupon the notice was given.

Mr. C. M. Cook was appointed Musical Committee for the coming period.

No member of the Maile Wreath Committee being present, a paper sent in was laid over, to be read at the next regular meeting.

The collection amounted to $15.05 and four life memberships, making a total of $55.05.

After singing, the Society adjourned to meet for its adjourned annual meeting, on the evening of June 9, 1883, at the Y. M. C. A. Hall.

RECORDING SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The weeks and months have passed swiftly by, and once more we have come together for the adjourned annual meeting. I will but briefly note the events that have taken place during the year, knowing that the reports that follow will show clearly the work that has been done. There have been thirteen meetings held during the past year; of these, eleven were regular meetings, one annual, and one adjourned annual meeting. At these meetings the attendance has been varied, the largest number, sixty-eight, being present at the meeting held December 30, 1882, at Hon. S. N. Castle's, and the smallest, number twenty-seven, met at Mr. Henry Carter's, on the evening of February 17, 1883. It will be remembered, however, that the evening of February 17th was the evening that those most wonderful illuminations in connection with the coronation took place, and, perhaps, our Cousins all, except the faithful few, were down in the Palace yard, to see the wheels "go round." The average attendance has been about forty-five.

As editors of the Maile Wreath, the following persons have served: For the first term of four months—Rev. S. E. Bishop, Mr. W. Rowell, Miss E. K. Bingham and Mrs. J. M. Whitney. Second term—Mr. J. Emerson, William Jones, Miss Payson and Miss A. Moore. Third term—Mr. W. O. Smith, Mr. J. Bishop, Miss C. Jones and Miss H. Chamberlain. On the musical committee: For the first quarter, Mr. F. Lowrey; second, Mr. A. Pratt; third, Mr. Myron Jones; fourth, Mrs. W. W. Hall.

The Society has met in the following places: July 1, 1882, at Kawaiahao Seminary; July 30th, at Mr. C. M. Cooke's; August 16th, at H. A. P. Carter's; September 23d, at Mr. P. C. Jones'; October 21st, at Dr. J. M. Whitney's; November, 25th, at Hon. A. F. Judd's; December 30th, Hon. S. N. Castle's; January 20th, 1883, at Mrs. E. C. Castle's; February 17th, at H. A. P. Carter's; March 17th, at Mr. C. M. Cooke's; April 28th, at Mr. W. W. Hall's; and the annual meeting, at Mr. W. R. Castle's, May 19th.

Nine persons have been made eligible to membership during the past year. Their names are as follows:

Samuel Mahelona,	Mr. F. Turrill,
G. Carson Kenyon,	Miss Hattie Needham,
Miss M. Agnew,	Miss L. W. Simpson,
Miss C. L. Storrs,	Mr. J. Butterworth,
Mr. F. H. Macy.

Of these, four have made themselves annual members and one a life member, leaving four who have yet to make themselves members. These are, no doubt, trying to decide whether they shall become life or annual members, and so are still on the fence. I may say, here, that the secretary-elect has a list of all those occupying the fence, from three years back up to date, and will shortly call around and invite them down. Besides the above new members, there have been nine life memberships made, all being children of "cousins."

A change was made in the by-laws, by inserting, in the place of Section 3, Article 2, two new sections, stating the qualifications for membership. The new sections can be found in the proper place in the new annual report about to be issued.

It will be noticed that the Society has added to its list of appropriations this year a new one—that of sustaining a Chinese girl's school in Honolulu—a good and worthy object, and one that needs the help of the Society. The appropriation for the coming year, amounting to $2,000, is an increase over last year of $150, and an increase of $1,400 over the appropriations made in the year 1852, in which year the Society was started. This shows how the good work of the Society has increased and is increasing, and let us hope that, as years go by, this Society will ever be at the front, doing as it has for thirty-one years, a good and noble work.

Respectfully submitted,

E. O. WHITE,

Recording Secretary.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY'S REPORT.

Another anniversary has arrived, and we stand at the end of the thirty-first year, almost before we know it. The past has been a year of so much added responsibility to your Secretary, in her duties in the Kawaiahao Seminary, that the Society correspondence has suffered somewhat. But, we have not failed to receive some pleasant letters and acknowledgments of reports. So this printed report must be more than ever considered a letter by the absent Cousins. Answers would be acceptable

MISSIONARY CORRESPONDENCE.

The growing work in Micronesia is reported by Rev. E. T. Doane. We are glad to hear that Obadia and Obidinea have returned to their field with renewed health; that all the stations in the Mortlocks have been sustained, and have made advance, and that the Ruk or "Truk" lagoon is opening more and more, and lighting up with the gospel rays. Mr. Doane's letter will be condensed and added to this printed report.

Miss Fletcher arrived at Ponape and was soon prostrated by such severe illness that, for a time, her life seemed trembling in the balance, but God spared her. During her illness she was nursed with great kindness by the Christian women of Ponape, chief of whom was Obadinia, who was there waiting her return to her work further west. Miss Fletcher was not able to write many letters on the return of the Star, but we have heard later accounts from Ponape, of the opening of her little school, the expected nucleus of the Female Seminary of those westward islands. A prospectus has been sent up, which shows that large plans are made in the strength of the Lord. The materials for building a school-house go down for them this year in the Morning Star.

Miss Cathcart, who arrived here with Mrs. Snow last June, just two days after the Morning Star left for Micronesia, has been employing her year of enforced rest as an assistant in Makawao Seminary. She has lately visited the volcano of Kilauea, on Hawaii, and is now in Honolulu, awaiting her return to Kusaiae. We regret that she is disappointed in the hope of having Miss L. Simpson as an associate, whose health is not considered equal to the attempt.

Mr. and Mrs. Houson, of Ponape, returned in the Morning Star in January, and are at present laboring in the foreign church at Kohala, Hawaii.

Mrs. Walkup and her fine healthy boy returned from their visit to the United States in May, and expect to re-join Mr. Walkup, at Kusaiae, this year.

We hear from the Logans, that they are enjoying their visit in the United States, and are improving in health. Mr. Logan is able to speak a little in public.

Rev. Horace J. Taylor and his children, who arrived from Micronesia last June, after a three weeks' stay here in Honolulu, returned home. A long letter to the Society was received from him, dated October 12, 1882, in which he tells how kindly and generously good homes have opened for his motherless children. Julia is in the family of Mrs. Douglas Putnam, of Harman, Ohio. "Her oldest daughter, Miss Mary Dimond, who takes almost the entire care of Julia, is a niece of Mr. Henry Dimond, of Honolulu." Fred, the baby, has found a home in the family of Professor Andrews, one of the faculty of Marietta College, Ohio. And Seymour has also a good home, and is attending the public schools. Mr. Taylor had received the copy of last year's annual report, and wrote quite warmly on the subject of the address, believing it natural for missionary children to take to the work and profession of their father. He says: "Fourteen of my playmates, whom I knew as a boy, are missionaries in India, Ceylon and Mexico; others that I did not know, are now missionaries in Ceylon and Africa." He adds: "The missionary work is the work of the church in this age. It is a work that must grow and grow. It is just as well to show its dark side, and not paint it in bright colors. Then the hideousness of heathenism, makes men realize that the trouble with the heathen is not that they are grossly ignorant, but that they are terribly wicked, and those who are called to the work will go just as readily, as if you set forth the 'romance' of missions." Mr. Taylor does not believe that the work of missions should be done by "celebrates," as advanced in the address. To quote once more from his letter: "Married men go to India, China and Africa, for business, sending their children to England and America to be educated. Can not we do for God what they can do for money?" A later note from Mr. Taylor accompanied some fine photographs of his three children for the Cousins' Album. The latest news from Mr. Taylor is that he has taken a release from the American board, and will remain in the United States.

Our dear Mother Snow returned to the East at the same time with Mr. Taylor and family. We have been privileged to read a note of her's, to Mr. H. Bingham, dated in March of this year. Her general health has improved, though her eyesight is still poor, but her interest in all things connected with Christ's kingdom in the "Isles of the sea" is as deep as ever.

A very welcome letter from Mrs. George Pierson, of Solomon City, Kansas (formerly a missionary to the Marshall Islands), acknowledges the annual Report, and expresses thanks for the regular arrival of these Reports for years past. "They form a link between themselves and the Islands," she writes. "We are still missionaries, and strive to advance the cause here," working for the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, in the women's work. Of their children, she writes. "Salome is married to Albert Houston Blair. She has two little girls—one a baby of two months. Their names are Stella Annette and Lucy Emily. Our son, George, graduated at Knox College, last year, and is for the present in the book business in Chicago. Mary, our California daughter, is at home still, and is developing into an earnest Christian womanhood."

We have not this year any letters to acknowledge from

SPAIN,

Owing probably to the absence of our Cousin, Thomas L. Gulick, from his field, for health, during most of the year. We have heard of his being in Paris last fall. Mr. H. A. P. Carter, on his return from Europe, in January, met with the Honolulu Cousins, and gave us a very charming account of an extempore Cousins' meeting, held in his hotel rooms at Paris. He had happened to meet at the American chapel, one Sabbath morning, T. L. Gulick and wife, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Shepard, and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Neal (the wives of the latter M. D's are Fannie and Florence Andrews, formerly of Makawao, Maui). Mr. Carter afterwards drove to their Paris residences, to find these Cousins, and took them to his hotel, where, with his daughter, Miss Belle Carter, and his niece, Miss Katie Dickson, they had a genuine Hawaiian Cousins' meeting.

From Mrs. Fannie (Gulick) Jewett, of Oberlin, Ohio, we have received two letters, and she reports her uncle Thomas Gulick as in New York city for a while. She wrote the Secretary, in answer to inquiries made in regard to the Spanish youth, in whom we were so warmly interested, last year. Very unexpectedly to all his friends, he disappeared during the vacation of the college of Oberlin, last summer, carrying with him what was left of the funds raised for his education. Every one who knew him was astonished and disappointed, for his character had seemed so exemplary, and they had reposed the utmost confidence in him. After much inquiry, it was traced out that he had returned to Spain. They are not yet entirely satisfied as to what was the cause. Prof. Jewett still hopes some explanation may be made.

By the arrival of the steamer Oceanic, direct from China and Japan, we were delighted to receive a letter from Mrs. Anna (Clark) Gulick, dated March 19th. After acknowledging the last year's Report, she told us they had sent their photographs to the Album. These have been received and are fine pictures. The Japan Cousins rejoice in this direct communication with the Islands, and hope that some of the travel may set towards Japan now, as well as San Francisco. She mentions the very feeble health of Mother Gulick, who seemed just lingering in Beulah land. Cousin Julia A. Gulick was her devoted nurse and companion. Mrs. Gulick seems as devoted as ever to her work, and spoke of an anticipated conference of all the missionaries of every denomination laboring in Japan, which was to be held in a few weeks in Osaka, which it was hoped would be a season of great profit and fellowship.

Besides these letters from our missionary Cousins, we have received acknowledgments of the reports from various others. Fannie Jewett, Hattie Coan, Joel Bean, Mrs. C. B. Andrews and Miss L. F. Ingraham. A very pleasant note from Rev. Oliver P. Emerson, now a settled pastor in Peacedale, Rhode Island, acknowledged the report and enclosed two dollars as a donation. He said he circulated his report as a means of spreading missionary news; he adds: "The Cousins cannot make better investments than those in Micronesia. May all their investments pay that they may have wherewith to give." Col. C. Seaforth Stewart, of San Francisco, sent a fine photograph of himself for the Cousins' Album to Miss H. S. Judd, after receiving the report, and in a very recent letter, May 2, 1883, to the secretary, acknowledges the circular of March 30th, with a check for twenty-five dollars.

By way of Maui, a letter was received from Mr. Samuel Holmes of Montclair, New Jersey. The older Cousins will well remember his pleasant visit in 1864, when he was admitted to our number, and made all his family life members as soon afterward as he could. Miss Frank Armstrong Beckwith is his oldest child, and she adds a little note to the envelope containing her father's letter, telling of their arrival on Maui, and her great pleasure in visiting these islands she has heard so much about. Mr. Holmes enclosed a check for twenty dollars, to make his youngest son, George Day Holmes, a life member, and enroll his first grandchild, Ruth Holmes Beckwith, also, as he racily puts it, "make his grandchild, cousin to her uncles, aunts and even her grandparents." And just at the last moment of grace for inserting in this report, come two letters more. One from Gen. Samuel C. Armstrong of Hampton, Virginia, with a check for ten dollars, in answer to the circular and kind words of sympathy, particularly in regard to the great questions of politics, health and morals in this beloved land of Hawaii, where things seem so depressed at present. A brief note from Prof. Fisk P. Brewer, of Grinnell College, Iowa, reports that he has sent ten dollars for life membership of his youngest daughter, Lily Field Brewer, and reports a very serious accident to his wife, our cousin Julia M. (Richards) Brewer, who "was thrown from a carriage in March, striking on her head with such force that she was insensible for a whole day," and had not recovered from the effects of the injury so as to be able to walk at this date, May 14th. Miss Grace Brewer seems to have been her father's amanuensis.

There remains now, only the personal items which from long custom have grown to be considered essential to this report. If omissions or errors are noticed by the wide-spread membership, please send word to the secretary, that another year may rectify.

MARRIAGES.

First on this list we must mention the double wedding of the two daughters of the late Rev. C. B. and Mrs. Annie S. Andrews, formerly of Makawao, Maui, the notice of which came just too late to be inserted in last year's list, but not too late to admit of their married names being printed in the list of names and addresses. This year Mrs. S. G. Andrews makes her new sons members of the Society. Very tasteful wedding cards were received from them last year.

July 5, 1882, Fred. D. Shepard, M. D., to Miss Fannie P. Andrews, both missionaries under appointment of the A. B. C. F. M. to Aintab, Turkey.

Also, July 5, 1882, Robert Neal, M. D., of New York, to Miss Florence N. Andrews, late of Makawao, Maui.

In Honolulu, July, 1882, Mr. Samuel E. Mann to Miss Sophia E. Emerson, of Waialua.

In St. Augustine, Florida, April 12, 1883, Mr. John W. Sanford to Miss Lucy K. Reynolds. (Miss Reynolds is a grandchild of Rev. Hiram Bingham, pioneer missionary to these islands.)

In Honolulu, May ———, Mr. John M. Oat to Miss Lydia Fuller, of San Francisco.

We note in the Friend for June the following item :
 “Married in Keytesville, Michigan, May 3, 1883, Mr. John Diell Blanton to Anna Hawes Miller. Mr. Diell is the son of Mary (Diell) Blanton, youngest daughter of Rev. John Diell, the first seamen’s chaplain in Honolulu. She was born in Honolulu.

Another very delightful golden wedding was celebrated in Honolulu on the 2nd of October, 1882, at the Nuuanu cottage of Rev. and Mrs. Lowell Smith, when many choice letters and papers of reminiscence were read, as well as several poems, prepared for the occasion. One of these poems was from the pen of Mrs. Diell, widow of Rev. John Diell, who was a fellow passenger to these islands with Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Smith fifty years ago.

DEATHS.

As we write the word, a sense of loss comes over us, and we can in memory see the venerable form and the sweet saintly face of Rev. Titus Coan, whom we shall see "no more on earth forever." "Father Coan" was with us last year, and presided, as in years before, at various meetings, and preached with his usual fervor, and conducted one meeting for the little ones in his own inimitable way. We did not deem it was "the last time." But so it proved. At the close of a series of special revival meetings in Hilo, conducted by Mr. Hallenbeck and his helpers, in which Mr. Coan had labored with untiring energy and almost youthful ardor, he was stricken with paralysis in September. He lingered, a model of patience, resignation and heavenly love, until December 1st, 1882, when he passed away quite suddenly, being conscious to the very last, and having no shadows of doubt or fear.

Others, too, have laid down their armor, for the battle of life was fought, the victory won, and the call was, "Enter your Master's joy." J. Evarts Chamberlain, on the 22d of August, 1882, passed away in his sleep. For years his life had been to all who met him, an exemplification of the superiority of mind over matter, his frail shell of a body seeming too frail for such mental vigor. His large catholic spirit of widest charity and most uncomplaining cheerfulness, made him beloved by all who knew him.

A shining mark, indeed, was that which death laid low December 4th, 1882, in George Bradley Bishop, nephew of Hon. C. R. Bishop of this city, one of our adopted Cousins. A young man of such unassuming worth, upright and consistent in every Christian duty, is sorely missed, when at the early age of twenty-two years his work is done. And almost the same words could be used of the lamented Charles T. Dillingham, whose sudden death from accident was such a shock to this entire community. Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Dillingham were also adopted members of this society, and had regularly attended our meetings, when able.

Rev. T. E. Taylor, husband of Persis G. Thurston, who was once Seamen's Chaplain at Lahaina, and afterwards the first pastor of Fort-Street Church, Honolulu, died at his home in Nordhoff, Southern California, on the 12th of February, 1883. He had been paying a visit to his daughter Lucy in Oakland, at the same time attending a minister's convention when, he was taken so very ill that it was evident his end was near; but his desire to return home was so great, his friends took the risk of his removal. He lived but three days after he reached home. Another member of our society, O. S. Cummings, M. D., who has ministered to many of us in hours of sickness, died at Valdesta, Georgia, February 17th, 1883. Dr. and Mrs. Cummings and family left here last summer to pass one winter in the States and return, but the cold New England winter proved too severe for the doctor, and they quickly sought a warmer climate, but all in vain for him; for after a few weeks of travel from Florida to Georgia, he passed away.

We truly rejoice that we have not to record this year, such inroads on our ranks of little ones, by death, as in years past, but our sorrow is as deep, for the family which has been bereaved. Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Lyman, after weary months of watching, in alternations of hope and fear, were forced at length to resign their little daughter of four years, Muriel C. Hualani, on the 11th of April, 1883, but they knew it was to the arms of Him who said: "Suffer little children to come unto Me," so sorrowing, they rejoice.

We have also heard of the death of Mrs. Florence May, wife of W. T. Forbes of Jacksonville, Florida. She died in Philadelphia. This is the second time our Cousin, Colonel Forbes, has been called to drink this cup of bereavement.

February 11, 1883, Rev. Adam Simpson, the faithful young pastor, who had labored but a brief year on the Island of Kauai among the foreign population, but in that short time had become well-known and beloved, was called up higher. For several months before his death, he had been unable to preach, as his disease was consumption. He died at Waimea, and his remains were brought over to Lihue, and laid to rest by the side of Mr. W. H. Rice (Father Rice), in the little family burying ground.

"But with Him—oh with Jesus!
Are any words so blest?
With Jesus everlasting joy,
And everlasting rest."

Respectfully submitted,

M. A. CHAMBERLAIN,

Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON QUALIFICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP.

The committee to whom was referred the matter of additional restrictions, in regard to the admission of new members, respectfully

REPORT

That in their judgment the difficulty sought to be avoided, the hasty introduction into membership of persons not in sympathy with the aims and objects of the Society, is a difficulty to be remedied rather by faithful and watchful observance of present regulations, than by the addition of hinderances and perhaps impracticable restrictions. Nor is it the object of this Society to furnish social privileges to worthy persons through membership in this organization. Your committee would therefore urge upon the members of the board of managers the obligation to guard well the interests of the Society rather than favor the wishes or needs of individuals applying for admission, with the design mainly of participation in the social privileges of this organization. Yet, believing that there is a want of explicitness in the by-law referring to this responsibility of the board of managers, they would respectfully recommend that Section 3, of Article 2, of the By-Laws, on page 49 of the Report for 1882, be reconstructed so as to assign a separate section to each of the matters therein mentioned, and that the following sections be remembered in accordance with the charge necessitated by the additional article.

It is recommended, therefore, to alter the by-laws by substituting for the present Section 3, the two following sections :

Section 3.—The board shall decide what applications for membership shall be recommended to the Society for its approval, according to Articles 7 and 10, of the Constitution, it being understood that all applications to the board must be only from persons interested in the spirit and objects of this Society and desirous of personal participation in its obligations as well as its privileges.

Section 4.—The board shall at the annual meeting recommend the appropriations to be made for the ensuing year, carefully considering the special claims of all old as well as new objects placed on its list.

C. M. HYDE, Committee.

Honolulu, September 23, 1882.

HOME CORRESPONDING SECRETARY'S REPORT.

As from the outlook of our Society we glance over the year that is even now being laid away among those forever past, we feel that great encouragement can be taken as an incentive to vigorous action in the year before us.

KAWAIAHAO SEMINARY,

Over which Miss Helen S. Norton wields her sceptre so successfully, is still on the ascending grade. The following is from Miss Norton's pen :

"During the vacation, improvements were made in enlarging the washing house, erecting an ironing room, and making other changes demanded by the increase in the number of pupils. Though the work was not completed at the required time, school opened August 30th.

"Twenty-four of those present the previous year did not return, six of these being Gilbert Island girls, all but one of whom have since returned to their native island.

"Thirty-one new pupils have entered, making the whole number to the present time eighty-nine. The health of the pupils has been very good, there having been only one case of severe illness during the year.

"Miss Chamberlain has been in school the entire year, and rendered most excellent service in teaching and in the general domestic cares of the family. Miss Flaxman also, taking charge of the sewing as heretofore, and Miss Alice West, who, besides other duties, has done much to introduce the Tonic-Sol-Fa system of Music.

“On account of her health, Miss Storrs did not return after the vacation in December. We were very sorry to lose such a faithful and painstaking teacher, who, in the few months she had been with us, had won the hearts of her pupils.

“In March, we secured (through the aid of one of your society) the services of Mrs. Mabel Closson as matron. She entered upon the work with zeal, and it has been a great relief to have one who takes the care of the housekeeping.

“Recently, Mrs. Fanny Simpson of Kauai, has come to assist us, devoting much of her time to the little girls. Her judicious teaching is already seen in many ways.

“The grading of the school has proved more satisfactory this year than last, and progress has been made in all the departments.

“A room has been fitted up in the front building for a recitation and sewing room for the little girls. We have introduced some of the Kindergarten methods, which seem to awaken thought and prove attractive to the children.

“Kind friends have remembered us as in the past, by gifts of money, pictures, books, chandeliers and clothing. That which we most desire and find most difficult to secure is, whole hearted consecration to Christ, on the part of these dear girls, and we ask your earnest prayers for this greatest of all blessings.

“Those who have been aided by your generous contributions have been the same as last year, Lilia Kanoho, Debora Haina and Emma Hanaike, all of whom are making progress.”

While Kawaiahao is the chosen institution of missionaries' daughters,

EAST MAUI SEMINARY

Is preferred by Hawaiian ministers. Miss Helen E. Carpenter has with her superior executive ability so ordered the affairs of her charge, that great improvements have taken place in many ways. Miss Carpenter has suffered greatly in health for several months, but we rejoice that she is now convalescent. She writes :

“I regret to be again away from my work when the call for reports is made. But the seminary has been well conducted during my absence by Miss Sheely and Miss Potter, assisted by Miss Nelson, recently from California, and Miss Becky Edmonds, one of our oldest pupils. Miss Cathcart has been with us the greater part of the year. All have been indefatigable in their work.

“One hundred and eight pupils have been in school during the year. One hundred and three at one time ; sixteen are daughters of Hawaiian ministers. The money given by the Hawaiian Mission Children’s Society has paid for the daughters of Rev. A. Pali and Rev. D. Puhi.

“So many of our older girls, who have assisted in the school, have married and left us during the past two years, we find it hard to train others fast enough to fill their places. But, so long as we hear good reports of those who have gone, to make homes of their own, we will not complain.

“For more than seven months of the year we have had workmen of all kinds upon the place, greatly increasing our cares. None but those who have tried to teach in dining-room, veranda, dormitory and kitchen can understand how we appreciate our new school room for primary department, and our quiet recitation rooms. We have also a room expressly for the sewing (a luxury before unknown), a reception room for parents of the scholars, a new dormitory, teachers rooms, etc. Much remains to be done in the way of furnishing.

“We would never forget that the great aim of the school is or should be to train Hawaiian girls to be useful Christian women. 'Freely ye have received, freely give,' is the motto we try to impress upon each one as she leaves us."

On account of the action of the association of Hawaii,

MAUNA OLIVA HOME

Was closed last October, leaving only two of our boarding schools for girls in active operation on these islands. We can not but hope that circumstances may transpire which will make the reopening of this seminary practicable. Its location is certainly very favorable.

Since the disbanding of her school, our faithful cousin, Miss E. W. Lyons, has been recruiting at home, where she finds another and grateful labor in filial duties to her aged parents.

We have received no reply from Mr. Oleson in regard to the

HILO BOARDING SCHOOL FOR BOYS,

But, from what we hear, we conclude our three beneficiaries there are progressing as usual.

Respectfully submitted,

M. T. BENFIELD,
Home Corresponding Secretary.

Perhaps at no time in the history of our society have we gathered together for our annual meeting under circumstances so peculiar, and in many respects so trying as those in which we meet to-night. A wave of sin, and disease, and death seems to be sweeping over this little land, beloved by many of us as the land where our fathers labored and prayed and died—loved for its beauty by us all. And we may well be alarmed, not only for the result upon this interesting native race, and upon ourselves and our children, but upon the missionary cause in the world. It has often been said that this little dot of upheaved ocean-bed holds a position in the world, both morally and physically, far beyond its intrinsic importance. While our location, midway between the west coast of America and China and Japan on one hand, and Australia and New Zealand on the other, gives us a position in the world which secures for us a consideration from all nations, our moral prominence in the Christian world is, if possible, more important. As the first example in the history of American missions, of a savage nation becoming civilized and Christianized, the Sandwich Islands have for many years been held up to the view of the world as an example of what the gospel of Christ can do for such a people. If this country becomes the seat of intemperance and moral degradation and national corruption, few as we are individually, and unimportant of ourselves, a blow will be struck at the great cause of religion which it must deeply distress us to consider.

Let us calmly and thoughtfully face the subject to-night, and ask ourselves the question which others will surely ask of us: Have we, as a society and as individuals, done all that we can to stay this high rising tide? As our fellow-members and other friends away from Hawaii nei, turn their eyes toward us, and with serious look ask whether we are found equal to this emergency, what answer shall we return? Is it from any lack of true life in our land? Are we in any way responsible for the passage of the free liquor law, that is bringing ruin to hundreds, and promises speedily, if it continues to be the law of the land, to destroy the entire native race? What of the equally alarming sanitary condition of the country? Has the whole influence of this society always been on the side of true, simple, Christian living? Or have some of us taken policy or convenience as our standard, or been wanting in the Christ-like courage, which is demanded of all of us who would benefit the world in which God has placed us?

By our last annual report, we find that we number 863 members, of which more than 400 are now residing on the islands. Among this number we count an honorable list of ministers of the gospel, judges of the supreme court, lawyers, merchants, planters and business men of almost all honorable callings. Mr. W. O. Smith, in his admirable address as retiring president a year ago, places the value of real and personal property now owned by the members of this society residing on the islands at $1,750,000. That of itself, in a country in which the total valuation of all property is estimated at $32,000,000, must give us an influence and a responsibility which cannot be ignored, and which ought to have a telling weight on the side of temperance, pure living, morality and religion. It will not be exaggeration to say that there is not in this country a church or society of any kind which has in it the power of numbers, of wealth, of cultivation, of social standing, which we Cousins may claim. And we may add the power of consecration to God's work, as is shown by the eighty of our number who have willingly renounced all worldly emolument as missionaries and ministers of the gospel. If the three hundred heroes of Thermopelae dared and withstood the hordes of the East that threatened to destroy their homes and country, may not we, if filled with equal enthusiasm and love of country, as surely overcome the far smaller power which is attempting to trample down the institutions which our missionary fathers so faithfully labored to build up and foster.

The second article of our constitution reads: "The design of this Society is, to cherish and promote union amongst its members, to cultivate in them an active missionary spirit, to stir them up to good works, and more especially to assist in the support of Christian Missions." The first of these objects we certainly have not failed in. There has always been a cordial feeling among us Cousins, which this Society has done much to "promote and cherish." The last named object, "to assist in the support of Christian Missions," we have not failed to attend to, as God has given us means. But, with it all, have we cultivated in this Society an "active missionary spirit," and have we stirred each other up to good works, as we might have done? Surely an "active missionary spirit" need not go to the Mortlocks or to Yup to find an object upon which to bestow itself. Can we think of a more ready missionary field than we find in the native race around us? Have we the deep and abiding interest in them, that arises from hearts fixed with love to all immortal souls? Are we not too apt to overlook their great sorrows and burdens, and, because their standard of living is not as high as we think it should be, forget that many of them are our brothers, and belong to that flock whose shepherd carries the lambs in his bosom. While we must shrink from close contact with the dreadful curse which is on every side breaking up households and consigning loved ones to a living death, may we not drop a tear with those who are thus bereaved, and make them feel that, though they are compelled to yield to a foe which is more relentless than death, they have our sympathies in this great distress and our earnest prayers, that in some way the devastation may be stayed? Oh, friends in this land, enriched with all that nature can bestow of beauty and comfort, is heard a voice more than that of Rama, "lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning." How they can be comforted, God only knows. Let us not fail to bestow our sympathy, and tears, and prayers. These, at least, we can give. I presume I can say for others besides myself, that since our intimate association with native Christians, during the meetings conducted by Mr. Hallenbeck, and since, a fresh interest in them has arisen, and they appeal to us now, not only as needy and suffering, but each as

" Heir of the same inheritance, Child of the self-same God."

But there is another fiend which is stalking through this land, followed by a greater wave of sorrow and death than can be caused by any disease which can only reach the body. Until recently, how comparatively secure we have felt for the native people against this foe? But since the fateful day, when the "free liquor" law was passed, the worst that could be anticipated has been realized. We see old men and women, young men and children, as if released from a painful thralldom, rushing to the ranks of their worst enemy; and we can imagine how the hosts of evil shout in exultation over so many new recruits, and in derision, that the prayers and labors of God's people have so apparently failed. Are we half aware of the terrible issue before us? We are tired of so much talk about temperance, perhaps; but we must remember, that this is our enemy who is never weary, whose resources never fail. There is no force which this great evil will not attempt against us. If the tongue of slander cannot drive us from our purpose, intimidation will be attempted. If that fail, they will not hesitate to resort to force, as we have recently witnessed in our own neighborhood. And we are the only ones who are powerless—we, who have God and the right on our side—we can do nothing but stand and look on, and bemoan our helplessness, while we see our friends for whom Christ died falling on every side. And we may not now feel secure even for ourselves and our own sons—this is such a relentless enemy!

Oh, Cousins, are we at work in every possible way to fight this enemy? Are we doing our duty as the true friends of those who are ready to perish—as brave defenders of the weak—as patriots whose country is invaded by a deadly foe—as citizens whose rights to security of person and property are at stake—most of all, as Christians, who should be in agony over the souls going to destruction all around us?

But, doubtless, the burden of missionary work upon these islands for the future, will be among the Chinese. And it is a work which God has brought into our very homes, and on all hands. Think of it—the very heathen for whom we pray—to whom we send our self-denying missionaries with tears and prayers; the same heathen are at work in our yards and kitchens—men to whom the names of Jesus is a strange sound, but with souls for whom Christ died. And what are we doing for them, and what shall we do for them? We are glad and proud that one of our own number has freely given himself to labor among this people. Let us, with equal readiness as we are able, give him our sympathy and support, and feel that the work is not his alone, but the work for us all, and he our representative and leader.

And, while we are stirring each other up to good works, let us consider some other evils that we must encounter and overcome, if we would do well the work that is given us to do.

A conformity to the world—not standing out clear and sharply defined against the world that surges around us. Are we afraid that we shall lose our influence in the world, if we show to them that we fear God, and have in some small degree the hatred for sin that he has? Judging from the past, we should be obliged to say, yes. But do you say that we are not a religious Society, and, therefore, are not to be held by the strict rules which should characterize a religious body? If we are not a strictly religious society, having for our chief end the cause for which Christ died—the salvation of souls—then I greatly mistake the spirit and letter of our preamble and constitution, and the thirty-one wonderful years of history which this Society has made. It is prayer and love for souls that has cemented this company together for so many years; and as long as the same love exists in the hearts of those who follow us, so long will it continue to hold this Society till the Lord comes. This conformity to the world hinders the cause of missions, for just so much as the love and fear of the world take possession of the heart, just so much do our interest and gifts for missions decrease. Cast out the world, and necessarily Christ's commands become more binding upon us.

Has any of the doubt that is sweeping over the world had any hindering effect upon any of us, to hold us back from an enthusiasm for Christian missions that should fill the heart that fully comprehends the glorious object? If so, let us together pray that the son of righteousness may so rise upon us that his beams may entirely dispel the foolish doubts, placed in our hearts by our common enemy the devil. Just here, let me quote from Mr. O. B. Frothingham, who for nearly twenty years has employed all his trained powers for the overthrow of religion, and has joined hands with Robert Ingersoll and others of his stamp in the same work. He says in the North American Review: "That Christianity will fall under the assaults of criticism is extremely improbable; that it will fall from any cause is extremely improbable—nay, it is quite impossible, and out of the question." From the depths of our souls we believe this, and it is a motive power that will act with increasing force upon us the more we take God at his word, and put doubt and unbelief behind us.

Dear Cousins, in closing, let me urge upon you and upon myself, in view of the great needs of the time when such gigantic evils are confronting us, and such glorious fields are whitening to the harvest, that in spirit and aim we gather more closely together around our Lord and master, so that we can clearly hear his voice above all the din and doubt of this earth, giving to each one of us the Christian's royal marching order: "Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations; and, lo, I am with you always."

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

OF THE HAWAIIAN MISSION CHILDREN'S SOCIETY.

PREAMBLE.

We, the children of the American Protestant Mission to the Hawaiian Islands, desiring to promote the cause of gospel missions, as well as to strengthen the bond of union that naturally exists amongst us, do hereby organize ourselves into a social missionary society, under the following constitution and by-laws:

CONSTITUTION.

Article 1. This society shall be called "The Hawaiian Mission Children's Society."

Art. 2. The design of this society is to cherish and promote union amongst its members, to cultivate in them an active missionary spirit, to stir them up to good works, and more especially to assist in the support of Christian missions.

Art. 3. The officers of the society shall be a president, vice-president, recording secretary, a home and a foreign corresponding secretary, and treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting of the society, to hold office for one year. All members of the society are eligible to any of these offices.

Art. 4. No one is eligible to fill the office of president for two consecutive years.

Art. 5. At each annual meeting of the society, two members shall be chosen by ballot, who, together with the officers mentioned in article 3, and such members as may be chosen by the auxiliary societies in accordance with article 9, shall constitute a board of managers, and who shall hold office for one year.

Art. 6. Any descendant of those who are, or have been members of the American Protestant Mission to these Islands, and the descendants of all those admitted into the society in accordance with article 7, are entitled to join the society by paying into the treasury the sum of one dollar annually, which shall constitute one an annual member, or paying at any one time the sum of ten dollars, which shall constitute one a life member.

Art. 7. Any person not included in the 6th article, may be permitted to join the society upon the same terms with those who are, by the consent of the board of managers, approved by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any regular meeting of the society.

Art. 8. Any number of life members, resident elsewhere than in Honolulu, pledging not less than $25 annually to the treasury of this society, may form an "auxiliary" (to consist of annual and life members of the society) by the appointment of such officers, and the making of such regulations as they may wish; provided, however, all be done in conformity with article 2nd of the constitution.

Art. 9. Any auxiliary society, pledging not less than $100 per annum, shall be entitled to elect annually one member of the board of managers of the parent society, to hold office one year from its annual meeting.

Art. 10. Any person may be admitted as an honorary member of this society by consent of a majority of the board of managers, approved by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any regular meeting of the society.

Art. 11. Any member may appeal from any action of the board of managers, to the society, at any regular meeting. If the appeal is seconded, such action may be reversed by a majority vote of the members present.

Art. 12. The society shall hold a regular meeting on such a Saturday evening of each month as it may approve, and an annual meeting in May or June.

Art. 13. Each member shall receive a certificate of membership in the following form, to be signed by the president and countersigned by the treasurer:

Sec. 3. The board shall decide what applications for membership shall be recommended to the society for its approval, according to articles 7 and 10, of the constitution, it being understood that all applications to the board must be only from persons interested in the spirit and objects of this society and desirous of personal participation in its obligations as well as its privileges.

Sec. 4. The board shall, at the annual meeting, recommend the appropriations to be made for the ensuing year, carefully considering the special claims of all old as well as new objects placed on its list.

Sec. 5. The minutes of the board shall be read before the society at each regular meeting, for acceptance and adoption.

Sec. 6. Any vacancies occurring in the board of managers, by death or otherwise, shall be re-filled by regular election of the society at the earliest succeeding meeting.

Sec. 7. The regular meetings of the board shall be held at such time as the board may determine, within seven days immediately preceeding the regular meeting of the society. The secretary of the board shall note the members present at each.

Sec. 8. Special meetings of the board may be called by the president at his discretion, or by three members thereof.

Sec. 9. A majority of the members resident in Honolulu shall constitute a working quorum of the board.

ARTICLE III.

The members of the society are expected to attend the regular meetings of the society, as far as may be possible; to perform all such duties as may, from time to time, be assigned to them, to collect all information that may be useful or interesting to the society, and at each regular meeting contribute to the funds of the society, according to their generosity and means.

ARTICLE IV.

The regular monthly meetings of the society shall be opened by prayer and singing; the minutes of the last meeting shall be read by the recording secretary; the minutes of the board of managers shall then be read and acted upon; a collection shall be taken up by the treasurer; the entertainment provided for in article 5 shall then be in order; next shall follow miscellaneous business; after which the meeting shall be closed by singing.

The monthly meetings of the society shall be opened to such guests as any of the members may invite as being in sympathy with the society and its objects.

ARTICLE V.

There shall be a committee of three on music, who shall be chosen quarterly, to aid in providing for the profitable entertainment of each monthly meeting.

There shall be a committee of four, consisting of two ladies and two gentlemen, to be elected every four months, to conduct a monthly paper, the purpose of which shall be to develop more fully the intellectual resources of the society, and add to the missionary interest of each monthly meeting.

There shall be a committee of two, to be appointed annually, whose duty it shall be to take the Maile Wreaths, after they are read, and attend to their circulation over the Islands, and subsequently to binding them in proper form, and be responsible for their safe-keeping.

ARTICLE VI.—RULES OF ORDER.

Sec. 1. In miscellaneous business, no one shall speak more than five minutes at a time without permission from the society.

Sec. 2. In all other points of order, the presiding officer shall be guided by the rules laid down in Cushing's Manual.

ARTICLE VII.

These by-laws may be altered or annulled by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at any regular meeting, notice of each amendment having been given at the meeting next preceeding.
